

THEATRE GIGANTE

THE WAY THINGS GO

a humorous, philosophical evening, poetically embracing the mystery of life.

In this short presentation, excerpts from The Way Things Go, with songs, will be presented. Theatre Gigante's production – written by Mark Anderson and adapted and directed by Isabelle Kralj – intertwines dialogue, movement and music in the typical Gigante way. THE WAY THINGS GO playfully addresses birth, love, the cosmos and everything in between – and explores the human condition and its need to connect. A refreshing and hopeful look at the world.
